don't plan

BRAYTON
CARLISLE

Dec. 27. 78

114

Dear Mr. Garrison

Mr. Parker has shown me your letter & I see, as I supposed, I had fallen into a mistake in addressing a little story, & he always appeared to me to be a most telling & touching one. I refer to the Edward Needles & the old negro. Others some are good & well, with a touch of sympathy, or & the ultimate success of the ~~Institution~~ Anti-Slavery Movement. I regret very

Mrs Wm Lloyd Garrison - Hopkinson / Jan 1878 / Mrs Wm Lloyd Garrison

Made that I should have crushed your heart with a story to insult the idea I despised even for a moment during the great struggle. I ought to have been more clear in my details - in telling how I felt the love that I offered even to buy anything if you turned to me as being away the hour of despair. I know however that in with excuse me, & believe, in truth I am not altogether sorry that the incident has occurred.
For it has called forth from

In a letter which will be very valuable & as it will throughout many [illegible] letters. When they read his Jew - in his modest & his greatest. Which leaves in an instant doubtless of the ultimate triumph of right

Our struggle is watched, in many capitals by [illegible] Jews.
They [illegible] an interest [illegible] Nor personal danger with [illegible] an heroic respect to [illegible] of [illegible] opinion.
On the other hand. the Powers [illegible] & by one [illegible] at least

MS. A. 1.2 V. 40 P. 64 (b) quite as they as there Mr were opposed & pre-the 'Emancipation' of the Negroes Press are Conservative, & often do go come upon a Teacher. as leader & the great cat, in a place where he owned the best copy of it.

But the ultimate triumph of our cause is certain, & the Confederacy & the Southern Contest & for their Slavery Institutions, & their glorious success is due to Mr Gladstone as well as we are in the struck I dare say.
Christmas will be a thing of the past ere you receive this letter but if best wishes will keep until Easter accept the attached may accept them heartily

Mrs Jane Kinsella & Hopkinsville Ky. to which Hopkinsville Kentucky